

The Mijas Lawn Bowls Club In-house competitions were contested in good spirit through out despite a number of enforced withdrawals in various competitions. Thanks to Bill Neal and Juan Abeal for organising the various events as Competition Secretaries for this season.

The Drawn triples was won by Hal Briscoe, Christine Naughton and Nabil Hamami with the beaten finalist of Tony Sandelance, Maureen Fraser and Wayne Myrden holding their own till midway through the match, but the winners finished the strongest and deserved their win.

The Drawn Pairs was won by the Spanish duo of Manolo Suarez and Juan Abeal with a walkover on the final but they played well through out the competition. Jeff Turner and Steve Ward were awarded the Finalist prize.

The Handicap Competition was wide open this year with many of the newer bowler beating their experienced opposition in the first and second rounds which made all the later games very interesting and closely fought. Tom Muckley and Kevin Bravant deserve special mention for reaching the quarter finals in their first year. The Final seen Steve Ward beat John Rimell 21-14 with Steve playing the more consistent and putting John under severe pressure on almost every end.

Ladies Singles winner was Sheila Wilson after she beat Christine Naughton 21-15 with good bowling through out the tie.

Mens Singles was won by Chris Down with a walk over in the final. Hal Briscoe was presented with finalist prize.

Good luck to Chris Down and Sheila Wilson will represent Mijas LBC in the Inter club Singles finals from the 14th to 18th March at Lauro.
